

2011 Miss American Ranch Horse

The competition to be Miss American Ranch Horse 2011-2012 takes place during the week of the World Championship Show. Contestants will have their skill and knowledge tested over the six days, which will include a written test, a speech and interview as well as the Working Ranch Horse class.

Spectators are welcome to attend the following scheduled events:

Working Ranch Horse

Thursday, July 21 after class#25a Arena A

Queens Parade

Tuesday, July 19 after class #25a Arena A

Speeches

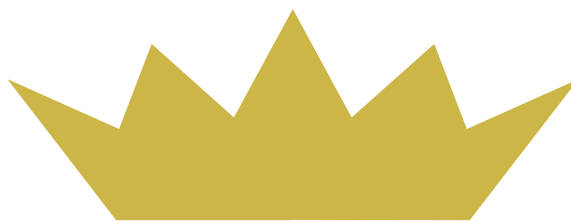

Friday, July 22 Roberts Hall 4:00pm

Come cheer for your favorite contestant at these events. The contestant will also spend time at various locations throughout the show grounds for opportunities to interact with exhibitors and spectators.

The competition comes to a conclusion following the Queen's Parade & Speeches. Come, cheer and see who wins the individual categories as well as the title of Miss American Ranch Horse.

Queens Coronation

Saturday, July 23 7:00 pm Held during the Awards Presentation

Times and locations are subject to change